

Rhode Island Bishop Controversy: Our own Marianne Duddy-Burke recently participated in a discussion on WBUR's (90.9 FM, Boston) Radio Boston regarding the remarks and tweets by Bishop Thomas Tobin, the Bishop of Providence. She was joined by Richard Gaillardetz, chairperson of the Theology Department at Boston College and former President of the Catholic Theological Society of America. The discussion is now available via a podcast at www.wbur.org. Please scroll down to the section labeled "Radio Boston". Please take a listen.

North Shore Pride: Dignity Boston will have a table at North Shore Pride on Saturday, 6/22 at the Salem Common beginning at noon. For more info go to www.northshorepride.org. If you'd like to help at the table, please let a member of the Dignity/Boston Executive Board know.

Our Liturgy

The glass chalices contain consecrated grape juice, for those who wish to abstain from alcohol. Gluten-free wafers are available as well.

Dignity/Boston continues to grow in awareness about gender diversity, and we recognize and welcome a spectrum of gender identities and expression. Unfortunately, our current hymnals do not reflect that well. As we strive to do a better job, we encourage you to change language as needed. We also encourage you to identify the pronouns you use on your name tag.

Please silence your cell phone.

Currently, Arthritis affects over 50 million Americans, including 300,000 children. The Arthritis Foundation is the largest arthritis gathering in the world with the goal of "celebrating our warriors, raising funds for research, resources and a cure." If you'd like to write a check, make it payable to "Dignity/Boston" and Dignity will write one larger check for the organization.

North Shore Pride Interfaith: Please join Dignity/Boston and other faith communities for the North Shore Pride Interfaith Service on Thursday, 6/20 from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. at the Tabernacle Congregational Church on 50 Washington St. in Salem.
